FOREWORD

In the making of this the 1942 YONAHIAN the staff has not endeavored to present a complete review of the past year but only to include the threads that will bring to our minds endearing thoughts and pictures.

DEDICATION

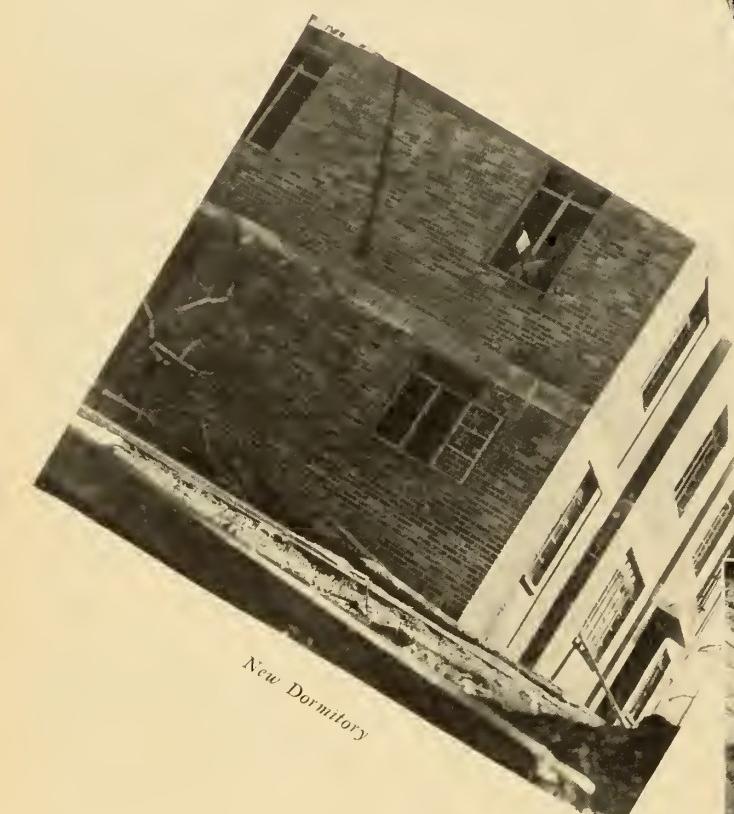

It is our privilege to dedicate this issue of the YONAHIAN to Mr. W. Baxter Smith. In his thirty-two years at Piedmont he has been faithful in service and understanding in spirit.

THE ORCHESTRA

The "Owls" have had a more successful year than ever before. They have had many engagements besides playing for all the Piedmont dances. They have also presented several programs over WRLC in Toccoa and assisted by transcription in the salute to Habersham County over WSB. They were unfortunate in that some of their members found it necessary to withdraw from school but they have carried on admirably. We feel sure they will continue to grow in their contribution to campus life.

COACH KING

Although the 1942 baseball season is in its infancy at the time the YONAHIAN goes to press we have had a preview of what to expect from the powerful Piedmont nine for the 1942 season. In their first game of the season—played away from home against Newberry College, S. C.—the lions lost a bitterly fought game. The next day, 2nd of April, the Lions opened their home season against the highly touted "Bluestockings" of Presbyterian College, and the Piedmonters under the able coaching of "Coach" King handed the visitors a beautiful "whitewashing" to the tune of Piedmont 3—Presbyterian 0. The fine squad on the field under Coach King should carry the Green and Gold to one of the best years ever recorded in Piedmont baseball history.

With "Love, Idealism, and Friendship" as its motto, Theta Zeta Phi Literary Society has continued to be a vital force in the life of Piedmont College. Miss Corian Stambaugh, its sponsor, and Mary Dana, its mascot, were presented at the annual reception for new students. The society, with its brother, the J. S. Greens, sponsored a Valentine dance. Its twenty-second anniversary program was one of the highlights of the spring quarter.

This year has been one of outstanding cooperation and interest on the part of its members.

Gamma Chi Literary Society holds sincerity of beliefs, cooperation with friends, and fairness in all dealings as ideals for a truly great organization. Gamma Chi has always played a vital part in Piedmont's social and educational life. She always does everything possible to welcome the new girls to Piedmont and never has she been more active than this year, with a membership of forty-eight girls.

For the ninth consecutive year Mrs. Ruth Ford Atkinson was elected sponsor, and little Judy Griggs of Mt. Airy was elected mascot for this year. With these leaders, Gamma Chi will continue to march forward.

The J. S. Green Literary Society in the year 1942 celebrated it's 44th anniversary. Founded practically with Piedmont itself, the "Greens" have worked and planned for the furthering of that spirit and quality of students so essential to the life of any college.

The members of the Green Society have sponsored club programs which have been educational and entertaining to each and every member. Among the speakers appearing before the "Greens" in the 1941-42 school year were men experienced in varied fields. "Voices of Experience" in the legal, travel, medical world, and many others have made each gathering in the "Green Room" an hour to be remembered.

The Protropian Literary Society was organized in 1898. Since it was organized, it has stood for the highest ideals that can be obtained. Fraternal fellowship, cooperation, and friendliness prevail among all members, and loyalty to the society and to Piedmont is a distinctive characteristic of every true Protropian.

The Protropians exchanged programs and social events with their sister, the Gamma Chi Society, during the year. These functions were enjoyed by all concerned and they served as a means of bringing the societies closer together.

Programs of especial interest by the Protropians this year included: A Reception, An Anniversary Program, A Radio Program, and a Formal Dance.
